

Colour Box Touring Shorts Programme

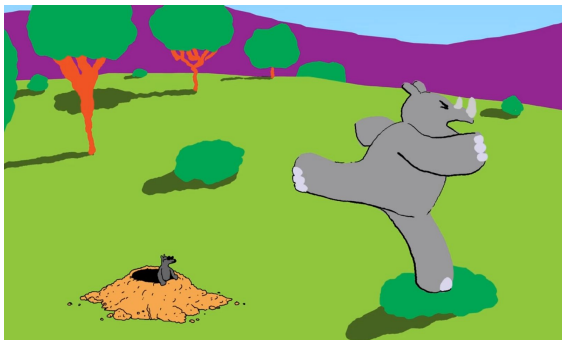

Nature's Tales (for ages 4+)

You'll find all kinds of creatures, great and small setting off on funny little adventures in this programme of colourful short animated films. From across the pond, Grammy nominated children's musical duo The Pop-Ups, have two brilliant sing-along videos featuring an exuberant fire-fighting Rhino and a troupe of dancing robots with infectious moves. A couple of Flatpack Film Festival 2017 award winners also feature - the brilliant Spring Jam from New Zealand about a young musical stag on the lookout for a partner during mating season, and the delightful German short The Common Chameleon about a greedy little reptile who bites off more than he can chew. Full of fun, this selection will tickle the whole family.

The subsidised booking fee for the programme is £60 + VAT with the option of a further £100 + VAT to book a professional actor to compere the screening, providing interaction, augmented engagement, plus added educational and creative value.

The Pop-Ups Bird and Rhino

Dir: Garrett Davis (USA / 2015 / 3 mins)

Stomp those fires out with a fire-fighting rhino.

In a Cage

Dir: Loïc Bruyère (France / 2016 / 6 mins)

A bear held prisoner in a cage will take in a little bird fallen from its nest. Over time, the bear will help the bird to fly, who in return, will teach the bear how to sing.

Our Wonderful Nature - The Common Chameleon

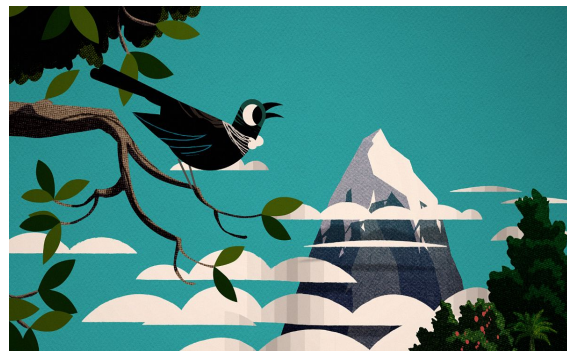

Dir: Tomer Eshed
(Germany / 2016 / 3 mins)

The feeding habits of a common chameleon as never seen before.

Spring Jam

Dir: Ned Wenlock
(New Zealand / 2016 / 6 mins)

A young stag, lacking impressive antlers, must improvise music in order to have any chance during the mating season.

Shmevolution

Dir: Nolan Downs (USA / 2016 / 4 mins)

Shmevolution imagines another kind of bestiary, in a fresh take on Darwin's theory, where one-eyed fish turn into long-necked dinosaurs.

Summer Camp Island

Dir: Julia Pott (USA / 216 / 8 mins)

Oscar and his best friend Hedgehog have just been dropped off at their first summer camp. Away from their parents, the two friends must summon all their courage to navigate the mysteries and wonders of this camp where anything can happen.

Birdlime

Dir: Evan DeRushie
(Canada / 2017 / 10 mins)

The film observes a wild bird trapped in a cage, surrounded by unfamiliar sounds and un-birdlike creatures.

The Sled

Dir: Olesya Shchukina
(Russia / 2016 / 4 mins)

An energetic little squirrel is in for the ride of his life when he makes an exciting discovery on a winter's day.

Opiuo – Quack Fat

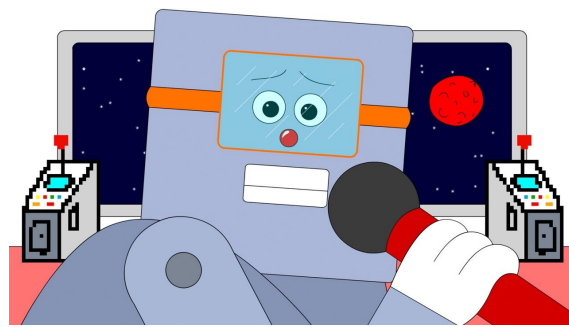

Dir: Dropbear (Australia / 2015 / 4mins)

240 audio cassettes, 5,600 feet of video tape, 108 floppy discs and 1 retro walkman.

The Pop-Ups Robot Dance

Dir: Garrett Davis (USA / 2015 / 3mins)

An imaginative, playful short about dancing robots.

